Practice Contractions

A contraction is a way to put two words together. Some letters will be left out and an apostrophe will replace them.

Use the contractions in the box below to fill in the lines below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>haven’t</th>
<th>isn’t</th>
<th>we’ll</th>
<th>let’s</th>
<th>it’s</th>
<th>you’re</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

you are ___________  it is ___________

is not ___________  have not ___________

we will ___________  let us ___________

Rewrite the sentences below using contractions instead of the underlined words.

We will go to the store.

The teacher said you are a good listener.

I have not watched the movie.